Dear Father

I am enclosing posters about “Heart Gives Unto Heart” Internet Radio Station, which I’d ask you to put up in your church(s). This Catholic radio station will broadcast between 7am - midnight Tuesday 14th to Monday 20th September 2010 to provide a positive media voice to promote our faith throughout the Papal visit. Listeners will be provided with an in-depth and fascinating insight into the Catholic faith at its very best - serving and caring for others.

The project has snowballed because of the Pope’s visit! The station will appeal to audiences of all ages and interests. But people will only listen if they know about it! So please give it as much publicity as possible.

If you want to photocopy the poster, please do so, or contact me below and I’ll willingly send you more. Some possible notices for your parish newsletter are given over the page. If you’d like them electronically, again please let me know. More information is available on my website, which you are most welcome to copy, too.

Because the launch has been brought forward by at least 6 months, the funding is extremely tight, so if you could distribute/display the sponsorship forms, I’d be very grateful. There has been so much to do to get Heart Gives Unto Heart up and running, there’s been no time for fund raising.

We are looking for young Catholics with talent to become involved in the radio – if you have anyone in the Parish whom you think would be interested, please encourage them to contact me soon. The majority of our programmes will be produced by young students from our Catholic senior schools endorsing their desire to be a major part in the future of their faith.

This radio is just part of a project to showcase the amazing talent in our young Catholics – please do all you can to support it! This is a community Catholic Youth Project and we want as many young people involved as possible.

God Bless and thank you.

Gerry Coates

Media launch of “Heart Gives Unto Heart” Papal Visit Internet Radio Station was held at Archbishop Amigo Hall, St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, on June 25th. The event was attended by Archbishop Peter Smith, Bishop Paul Hendricks, and members of the Radio Station Steering Committee, and was supported by numerous members of the Catholic Church. Guests were entertained by students from St Anselm's School, Canterbury; St Edmunds School, Dover; and FuSE (a catholic British Filipino Band, prior to their appearance in the final of 'Live and Unsigned' at O2 in July). Gerry Coates opened by singing 'Pope Benedict is Coming'.

This Catholic internet radio station will broadcast 7am – midnight, Tuesday 14th to Monday 20th September 2010 to provide a positive media voice to promote the Catholic Faith throughout the Papal visit. It will provide live coverage by student reporters following the Pope on his historic visit. A wide variety of other programmes will also be broadcast to appeal to a wide audience. Programmes will be produced by students from our senior catholic schools. Such features as Podcasts and 'Listen Again' will be available.

If you're enthusiastic about becoming involved, please get in touch with Gerry Coates and help launch this exciting youth internet radio station. There are opportunities for everyone!

The project is supported by the “Heart Gives Unto Heart” Papal Visit Radio Station Committee:

Bishop Paul Hendricks, Southwark Diocese; Maureen Todd - Southwark Schools Commission; John Toryusen - Southwark Catholic Youth Services; Louise Perry - School Chaplain; Steve Hall - School Media Director; and Gerry Coates - Project Director.
